Date of Activity: 12th January 2023

Mode of Conduct: Physical (offline)

Nature of Activity: Mandatory (Days)

Objective of the Event:

To amplify the message that action is needed across all generations to achieve the success in Indian startup

Outcome of the Program

To motivate the youth, create a better future for the country, and spread awareness for startup and Innovation

Introduction:

12th January, the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda is celebrated as National Youth Day to honor his contributions and to propagate his philosophy and the ideals. The main objective of celebration is to promote rational thinking among the youth of the country.

On this occasion DYPIMR organized brainstorming session on 'How to awaken entrepreneur in the Youth' for the MBA and MCA students. The students were asked to prepare prior on said topic and discussed among them. The students presented and discussed many things about the above topic. Faculty were also contributed and thrown light on the youth physiology about business. Faculty were spoke about Universal Life Education and its importance which focused on making the students understand, appreciate, respect and treasure life. Director Dr. Meghana Bhillare encouraged them to be initiative, active, to grow in a healthy manner in every aspect, and to realise the meaning of life and the value of education. She concluded by giving the message that emphasised on the point: 'one should be a good human being before anything else'.
